For Immediate Release

Naples Botanical Garden to Reopen October 1, Music in the Garden Resumes October 6

NAPLES, FL – September 26, 2019 – Starting Tuesday, October 1, Naples Botanical Garden will reopen to the public following our annual maintenance closure. This season takes on a festive air, as the Garden celebrates its 10th anniversary. From their vantage point on the Smith Entry Prow, guests will be sure to catch sight of temporary, eye-opening plantings gracing the Garden's lawn, in keeping with this banner year.

The Garden will be open from 8am – 5pm daily, with the Jane and Chuck Berger Shop in the Garden and Fogg Café open from 9am – 5pm daily.

As days grow shorter and cooler autumn breezes move in, guests are also invited to enjoy Music in the Garden, featuring the musical stylings of local talent. The twice-monthly event moves back outdoors, so bringing a chair is encouraged! Music in the Garden is included with regular Garden admission and runs from 12 – 2pm every first and third Sunday.

Upcoming concerts:

October 6: The Woodwork

October 20: The John Patti Project

November 3: Reckless Saints

November 17: Bugtussle Ramblers

December 1: Patchouli and Terra Guitarra

December 15: Mirage

January 5: Kelly & Mason Duo

January 19: The Woodwork
