Steve Tobin: Nature Underground, Artists in Bloom, on View Through Sept. 6

NAPLES, FL – August 16, 2021 – Savor the lingering days of summer (Labor Day Weekend included) as both of the exhibitions at Naples Botanical Garden remain on view through Sept. 6.

Enjoy unexpected glimpses into the natural world during your Garden stroll, with Steve Tobin: Nature Underground. His famed Roots series, which explores the unseen power of the natural world, seem to dance on the earth, spiraling to create elegant forms and ever-changing shadows.

Inside Kapnick Hall, guests can see the Garden through the eyes of more than two dozen of our community's local artists. Expect to see a wide array of works, ranging from photography and mixed media to charcoal and oil on canvas.

Organized in partnership with the United Arts Council of Collier County, Artists in Bloom takes an intimate peek into the relationship between the artist and the Garden as its muse, featuring an exciting selection of works that reflect the essence and spirit of Naples Botanical Garden.

While these exhibitions come to a close September 6, residents of Collier, Lee, and Charlotte counties enjoy discounted admission through September 30, with $12 for adults / $3 for children (age 4 – 17) / $8 for dogs (one dog per adult during designated dog walking times). As always, children 3 and under are free. Guests need only present license or proof of residency at Ticketing to receive this discount.
