

NATURE'S palette

Nature's Palette* exhibition on view this spring at Naples Botanical Garden

For Immediate Release

NAPLES, FL – April 14, 2026 – Naples Botanical Garden presents Nature's Palette, a vivid new exhibition featuring works by members of the National Association of Women Artists (NAWA) Florida Chapter, on view April 25 – June 21 in Kapnick Hall.

Inspired by the rich hues of the subtropics, the exhibition invites guests to experience the natural world through a spectrum of artistic expression—from lush greens to radiant florals and subtle tonal variations.

Each piece in the exhibition reflects the beauty and diversity of the Garden's living collections and the surrounding environment, offering visitors a fresh perspective on the colors that define Southwest Florida's landscapes.

Free with Garden admission.

About the National Association of Women Artists

Founded in 1889 as The Woman's Art Club of New York, the National Association of Women Artists (NAWA) was established to support and advance women in the fine arts. Through exhibitions, educational programming, scholarships, and awards, NAWA continues to provide opportunities and recognition for women artists across the country.
